

Imagine entering a prayer space where the subdued light is provided by the soft glow of numerous candles. Imagine a harmonious environment with a cross, icon, or open bible as the center focal point. All are facing the same direction expressing that this prayer is directed not to one another but to Christ. Imagine singing and listening to uncomplicated simple songs uncluttered by too many words, repeated again and again in a meditative style. Imagine a prayer open to the Spirit's ebb and flow often varying in intensity. Now imagine an assembly of diverse believers from various faith denominations coming together to praise God and to celebrate their common love of Jesus Christ. This is Taize' prayer! The public is invited to attend the
