The Art of Transitional Ministry

Interim/Transitional Ministry Education is intended for those presently engaged in interim or transitional ministry and those inquiring about this ministry. Committee on Ministry members and presbytery staff persons with responsibility for congregations in transition will also find the education helpful.

Basic Interim/Transitional Ministry Education consists of 60 contact hours plus a Practicum. The contact hours are divided equally between two Residency Weeks – Week I (30 hours) and Week II (30 hours) separated by a Practicum which combines reflection on, and experience in, some aspect of interim/transitional ministry.

MALT (Lincoln Trails/Mid-America) offers education for both Weeks I & II. Participants must complete both Residency Week I and all Practicum assignments before taking part in Residency Week II. Those who complete the first week of basic education at another site must complete all MALT Practicum assignments prior to attending Residency Week II.

We offer a full thirty (30) hours of education for each week. If you desire to receive a Statement of Completion for each event, you must actively participate in all sessions in their entirety (30 contact hours).

Early registration will ensure participants ample time to complete reading assignments prior to the start of each residency week.

Residency Week I

Participants will be introduced to and invited to reflect on:

- Their own self as a leader and leadership for the congregation in transition.
- The work of the congregation during the transitional time and the work of the transitional leader.
- Working with the congregation as a system, processing change issues, and managing conflict
- The importance of boundaries, self-care, and competencies for the transitional leader.

Practicum Content

Participants will:

- Reflect on their leadership style.
- Use analytical skills for reflecting on ministry situations.
- Integrate interim/transitional ministry concepts into ministry situations.

Residency Week II

Participants will reflect on:

- The dynamics of the transitional period utilizing learning conversations from their own ministry contexts.
- Living with and in the congregation as system.
- Competencies for the transitional leader, including focusing, preaching and leadership.
- The Interim/Transitional Pastor as a self-differentiating leader.
