Re: Vacation Bible School Grants for 2012

As you may recall, when the Hopedale Presbyterian Church closed, the Presbytery decided to use remaining funds for Vacation Bible School grants. Many churches (over 70) took advantage of this program. Because of that, the parameters for 2012 will be different. The funds will be expended this year.

For 2012, there will be a deadline for applications of April 1, 2012. Any congregation that either did not request funds last year or has not had VBS in at least five years will be eligible for up to $500. All other congregations will be eligible for up to $100. The $100 grants will be used for the smallest congregations first since the Visioning Team has decided to combine a very small amount of money left in a small church fund with the VBS funds.

On or before April 1, please submit this application to the presbytery office.
