

On April 26, 2011, the Committee on Ministry passed the motion that Ministers of Word and Sacrament in good standing, with approval from presbytery within whose bounds wedding will take place, may perform a wedding within the bounds of said presbytery without COM action so long as it meets the state's law.